(IN THE STATE COURT OF GWINNETT COUNTY, GEORGIA, CIVIL ACTION FILE NO. 23-C-03676-S7)

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

COMES NOW, TRISURA SPECIALTY INSURANCE COMPANY (“Trisura”), a named Defendant in the above-styled civil action, and, through its undersigned counsel, petitions for removal of a civil action from the State Court of Gwinnett County to the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division, and respectfully show the Court as follows:

1.

On May 28, 2023, Plaintiff filed a civil action in the State Court of Gwinnett County, styled Jonathan Hawkins v. Juan Rafael Santos, ATC Transport Service, Inc, Dispatchers OTR, LLC, and Trisura Specialty Insurance Company, Civil Action File No. 23-C-03676-S7. Defendant Trisura was served on June 6, 2023. Attached hereto as Exhibit A are copies of the General Civil Case Filing Form dated May 28, 2023, the Complaint for Damages dated May 28, 2023, the Summons to Trisura Specialty Insurance Company dated May 28, 2023, the Summons to Juan Rafael Santos dated May 28, 2023, the Summons to Defendant Dispatchers OTR, LLC dated May 28, 2023, the Summons to Defendant ATC Transport, Inc. dated May 28, 2023, the Summons to UM/UIM Carrier National General Insurance Company dated May 28, 2023, the Rule 5.2 Certificate of Service of Discovery Materials dated June 3, 2023, the Affidavit of Service on National General Insurance Company<sup>1</sup> dated June 12, 2023, the Affidavit of Service on Trisura Specialty Insurance Company dated June 12, 2023, the Answer of National General Insurance Company dated July 6, 2023, the Certificate of Service of Discovery Material dated July 6, 2023, and Defendant Trisura Specialty

---

<sup>1</sup> Based upon the police report for the incident at issue in Plaintiff's Complaint, National General Insurance Company appears to be a UM/UIM carrier however, Defendant Trisura has no other information about this entity.

Insurance Company's Answer to Plaintiff's Complaint for Damages dated July 6, 2023 which currently constitutes the entirety of the pleadings in this case.

Defendants are also filing a Notice of Filing of the Notice of Removal with the State Court of Gwinnett County as required by 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

According to the Complaint, this lawsuit arose out of a motor vehicle collision which occurred on or about September 6, 2021 in McIntosh County, Georgia and the subject incident involved Plaintiff Jonathan Hawkins and Defendant Juan Rafael Santos. Santos was driving a tractor-trailer believed to be owned by Defendant ATC Transport Service, Inc. and/or Dispatchers OTR, LLC and is alleged to be insured by Defendant Trisura.

3.

Plaintiffs allege that Defendant Santos is liable for damages due to operating an unsafe vehicle with visible emissions, failing to ensure that his vehicle was in a safe operating condition, failing to inspect his vehicle, failing to submit an inspection report, failing to declare his vehicle "out of service", failing to repair and maintain his vehicle, operating his vehicle in such a condition as to likely cause an accident, failing to use reasonable care in operating a commercial motor vehicle, failing to abide by the basic rules of the road, driving a commercial motor vehicle in reckless disregard for the safety of others, failing to adhere to safe driving principles expected of professional truck drivers with commercial driver's licenses, failing to operate a tractor-trailer in accordance with generally accepted safety principles and practices of the trucking industry, violating state trucking regulations and Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations, and otherwise failing to act reasonably and prudently as a professional commercial driver should under the circumstances. (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶¶ 24, 36). Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants ATC Transport and Dispatchers OTR are liable for the acts and omissions of Defendant Santos under the doctrine of respondeat superior and through negligently allowing Santos to operate his vehicle in a condition likely to cause an accident; failing to systematically inspect, repair, and maintain Santos' vehicle; failing to perform an inspection of Santos' vehicle; failing to declare Santos' vehicle as "out of service;" negligently hiring or contracting with Santos; negligently failing to qualify Santos as a commercial driver; negligent training of Santos; negligent supervision of Santos; negligent entrustment of Santos; negligent retention of Santos; failing to conduct proper background checks of Santos; failing to determine Santos' fitness to operate a commercial motor vehicle; negligently contracting with an unfit and unsafe motor carrier; negligently selecting a motor carrier to ship goods or property via interstate commerce; otherwise violating state laws and federal regulations governing trucking companies; and failing to act as a reasonably prudent company under the circumstances. (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶¶ 52, 67). Plaintiff further alleges a claim against Defendant Trisura under Georgia's Direct Action Statute. (Plaintiff's Complaint ¶ 75). Plaintiff also further alleges that all Defendants' negligence proximately caused injuries to Plaintiff, which have caused him to be seriously injured and endure physical and mental pain and suffering. (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶¶ 82, 83).

In his Complaint, Plaintiff contends that the venue in the pending State Court action is proper against Defendants. (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶¶ 3-5, 7). Defendant Trisura recognizes that Gwinnett County is located within the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division. Therefore, pursuant to 28 U.S.C.A. § 1446(a), the Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta Division, is the correct Court for Defendants to file this Notice of Removal.

5.

Plaintiff's Complaint alleges that Defendant ATC Transport Service, Inc. is an interstate carrier which is organized under the laws of the State of Florida and having its principal place of business in the State of Florida; Defendant ATC is a citizen of the State of Florida. (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶ 4).

6.

Plaintiff's Complaint alleges that Defendant Dispatchers OTR, LLC is an interstate carrier which is organized under the laws of the State of Florida and having its principal place of business in the State of Florida. (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶ 5).

7.

Additionally, for purposes of diversity jurisdiction, "a limited liability company is a citizen of any state of which a member of the company is a citizen." Rolling Greens MHP, L.P. v. Comcast SCH Holdings, L.L.C., 374 F.3d 1020, 1022 (11th Cir. 2004). Upon information and belief, Defendant OTR's sole known member is a citizen of the State of Florida.

8.

Plaintiff's Complaint alleges that Defendant Santos is a natural person who is a citizen of the State of Florida. (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶ 3).

9.

Defendant Trisura is organized under the laws of the State of Oklahoma and having its principal place of business in the State of Oklahoma; Defendant Trisura is a citizen of the State of Oklahoma.

10.

Plaintiff states that he is a resident and citizen of the State of North Carolina in his Amended Complaint. (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶ 2).

11.

Accordingly, there is complete diversity of citizenship between Plaintiff and Defendants. Thus, this action is one over which this Court has diversity jurisdiction in accordance with the foregoing authority and 28 U.S.C.A. § 1332.

12.

In the Complaint filed on May 28, 2023, Plaintiff alleges past medical special damages in the total amount of $329,359.03. (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶ 80). The Complaint also alleges past and future lost income and future medical special damages in an amount to be determined, punitive damages, and attorney's fees. (Plaintiff's Complaint, ¶¶ 79, 80, 89).

13.

Accordingly, assuming Plaintiff will prevail on each of his claims set forth in his complaint, which Defendant Trisura specifically denies, the matter in controversy has a value, exclusive of interest and costs, in excess of $75,000.

14.

Therefore, it is Defendant Trisura's position that amount of medical special damages alleged by Plaintiff places the amount in controversy over the $75,000 threshold for diversity jurisdiction.

15.

Accordingly, this action is one over which this Court has diversity jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332, in that (a) Plaintiff is a North Carolina citizen; (b) Santos is a citizen of Florida; (c) ATC Transport is a citizen of Florida; (d) Dispatchers OTR is a citizen of Florida; (e) Trisura is a citizen of Oklahoma; and (e) the matter in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, exceeds $75,000.

16.

By making this petition for removal, Defendant Trisura specifically states that it is not waiving any available defenses to Plaintiff's claims. Additionally, Defendant Trisura specifically states that by making this petition for removal,

Defendant Trisura is not admitting to any of the allegations made in Plaintiff's Complaint.

WHEREFORE, Defendant Trisura prays that this petition be filed, that said action be removed to and proceed in this Court, and that there be no further proceedings in said case in the State Court of Gwinnett County.

The undersigned has read this Notice of Removal, and to the best of their knowledge, information and belief, formed after reasonable inquiry, determined that it is well-grounded in fact, is warranted by existing law, and is not interposed for any improper purpose, such as to harass or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation.

Respectfully submitted this 6th day of July, 2023.

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES

---

COMES NOW the Plaintiff, JONATHAN HAWKINS, by and through counsel, and files this Complaint for Damages against the above captioned Defendants, showing this Honorable Court as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1.

This is an action for personal injury and damages arising out of a motor vehicle collision that occurred on September 6, 2021 (the "Subject Collision"). The Subject Collision took place on Interstate 95 in McIntosh County, Georgia.

PARTIES, JURISDICTION, AND VENUE

2.

At the time of the Subject Collision, Plaintiff JONATHAN HAWKINS ("HAWKINS") was a resident and citizen of the State of North Carolina.

3.

Defendant JUAN RAFAEL SANTOS (“SANTOS”) was the driver of a tractor-trailer involved in the Subject Collision. He is a citizen of the State of Florida and resides in Miami-Dade County, Florida. Defendant SANTOS may be served with process at 3375 SW 1ST Street, Miami, Florida 33135. Once served with process as described herein, Defendant SANTOS will be subject to the jurisdiction and venue of this Court.

4.

Defendant ATC TRANSPORT SERVICE, INC. (“ATC Transport”) is an interstate motor carrier based in Florida and registered with the U.S. Department of Transportation under D.O.T. Number 3570094. Defendant ATC Transport is a Florida corporation with its principal office located in Miami, Florida and may be served with legal process through its registered agent for service at 5643 NW 74th Ave, Miami, Florida 33166. Once served with process as described herein, Defendant ATC Transport will be subject to the jurisdiction and venue of this Court.

5.

Defendant DISPATCHERS OTR, LLC (“Dispatchers OTR”) is an interstate motor carrier based in Florida and registered with the U.S. Department of Transportation under D.O.T. Number 3570094 and MC Number 1202280. Defendant Dispatchers OTR is a Florida limited liability company with its principal office located in Florida and may be served with legal process through its registered agent for service, Efrain Santana, Sr., 777 Davie Road, Extension 201 A, Hollywood, Florida 33024. Once served with process as described herein, Defendant Dispatchers OTR will be subject to the jurisdiction and venue of this Court.

6.

Defendant TRISURA SPECIALTY INSURANCE COMPANY (“Trisura Specialty”) is a foreign corporation that provided liability insurance to Defendants Santos, ATC Transport and Dispatchers OTR on the tractor-trailer unit that was involved in the Subject Collision under Policy Number FOP-10976-2021.

7.

Defendant Trisura Specialty is authorized to conduct business in the State of Georgia and may be served pursuant to O.C.G.A. §§ 14-2-1510 and/or 33-4-3 with a copy of the Complaint for Damages and Summons on its registered agent for service, J. Patrick O’Brien, c/o Corporation Service Company, 40 Technology Parkway South, Ste. 300, Norcross, Gwinnett County, Georgia 30092.

8.

Defendant Trisura Specialty is subject to the jurisdiction of this Court as the insurer of the motor carrier that was operating the tractor-trailer unit in Georgia pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 40-1-112 and other applicable Georgia law.

9.

Defendant Trisura Specialty was transacting business in the State of Georgia and in Gwinnett County, Georgia at the time of the Subject Collision, and at all material times hereto, and is subject to the venue of this Court pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 33-4-1 and other applicable Georgia law.

10.

Defendant Dispatchers OTR is the named insured on Policy Number FOP-10976-2021 issued by Trisura Specialty.

11.

At all times relevant to this action, Defendants ATC Transport and Dispatchers OTR acted either as motor contract carriers of property through the State of Georgia or as motor common carriers of property through the State of Georgia pursuant to one or more permits to operate as a motor carrier issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission, or by the United States Department of Transportation, or both.

12.

Upon information and belief, at all times relevant to this action, Defendant Dispatchers OTR was doing business as, or was operating under the name of Defendant ATC Transport.

13.

Upon information and belief, at all times relevant to this action, Defendant Dispatchers OTR was involved in a joint venture and/or joint enterprise with Defendant ATC Transport.

14.

Upon information and belief, at all times relevant to this action, Defendant Dispatchers OTR was contractually linked with Defendant ATC Transport pursuant to a lease agreement for trucking equipment and/or transportation services.

GENERAL FACTS

15.

Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint for Damages as if each were fully set forth in their entirety.

16.

On September 6, 2021, Plaintiff was the restrained driver of a 2004 Ford F250 traveling southbound on Interstate 95. At the same time, Defendant Santos was traveling southbound on Interstate 95 operating a 2014 INTI tractor-trailer while under dispatch for ATC Transport and/or Dispatchers OTR.

17.

At all relevant times, the tractor-trailer Defendant Santos was operating was owned and maintained by ATC Transport and/or Dispatchers OTR.

18.

Plaintiff was unable to see Defendant Santos' tractor trailer due to a heavy volume of black smoke it was producing and attempted to veer to avoid hitting the rear of Defendant Santos' vehicle. Plaintiff was unable to stop in time and struck the rear of Defendant Santos' front passenger side of his tractor.

19.

Defendant Santos' tractor had been producing heavy volumes of black smoke for several hours prior to the subject collision.

20.

At least two hours before to the subject collision, Georgia State Patrol officer Deputy Rowe spoke to Defendant Santos at the southbound weight scale. According to the police report, Deputy Rowe observed Defendant Santos' tractor producing heavy black smoke and noted that a tow truck was on the scene to tow the vehicle due to engine problems.

21.

According to the police report, Deputy Rowe received several calls from his dispatch reporting the heavy black smoke being emitted from Defendant Santos' vehicle.

22.

Defendant Santos advised Deputy Rowe that he would have the tractor towed to a repair facility.

23.

Despite telling Deputy Rowe that he planned to have the tractor towed, Defendant Santos proceeded to drive the tractor-trailer on the interstate, knowingly and willfully endangering the lives of others, including Plaintiff.

24.

Defendant Santos was negligent for driving an unsafe vehicle with visible emissions on a public road, in violation of O.C.G.A. § 40-8-181, which constitutes negligence per se.

25.

Defendant Santos' negligence proximately caused the subject collision and Plaintiff's resulting injuries.

26.

There was nothing Plaintiff could have done to avoid the subject collision.

27.

No act or omission on the part of Plaintiff caused or contributed to the cause of the subject collision.

28.

Plaintiff was severely and permanently injured as a result of the subject collision.

COUNT I – NEGLIGENCE OF JUAN RAFAEL SANTOS

29.

Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint for Damages as if each were fully set forth in their entirety.

30.

At the time of the subject collision, Defendant Santos was a professional driver and held a Class A Commercial Driver License (“CDL”) issued by the State of Florida.

31.

At the time of the subject collision, Defendant Santos was operating a tractor-trailer unit under dispatch for ATC Transport and/or Dispatchers OTR.

32.

On September 6, 2021, Defendant Santos was an employee of ATC Transport and/or Dispatchers OTR.

33.

At all relevant times, Defendant Santos was driving a commercial motor vehicle in interstate commerce and was subject to Georgia traffic laws and trucking safety regulations and to the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations (“FMCSR”).

34.

At all relevant times, Defendant Santos was also subject to corporate safety standards and trucking industry standards, the violation of which is evidence of negligence.

35.

At all relevant times, Defendant Santos owed certain duties to members of the public, including Plaintiff.

36.

In addition to those instances of negligence set forth elsewhere herein, Defendant Santos was negligent in the operation of the tractor and trailer he was driving in at least the following specific ways:

- (a) Failing to ensure that his vehicle was in a safe operating condition;
- (b) Failing to inspect his vehicle;
- (c) Failing to submit an inspection report;
- (d) Failing to declare his vehicle as “out-of-service”;
- (e) Failing to repair and maintain his vehicle;
- (f) Operating his vehicle in such a condition as to likely cause an accident;
- (g) Failing to use reasonable care in operating a commercial motor vehicle;
- (h) Failing to abide by the basic rules of the road;
- (i) Driving a commercial motor vehicle in reckless disregard for the safety of others;
- (j) Failing to adhere to safe driving principles expected of professional truck drivers with commercial driver’s licenses;
- (k) Failing to operate a tractor-trailer in accordance with generally accepted safety principles and practices of the trucking industry;
- (l) Violating state trucking regulations and Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations; and
- (m) Otherwise failing to act reasonably and prudently as a professional commercial driver should under the circumstances.

37.

Defendant Santos was also negligent per se in that he violated a number of laws and regulations governing his operation of a commercial motor vehicle, including, but not limited to:

- (a) Failing to abide by basic rules of the road, O.C.G.A. § 40-6-180;

- (b) Failing to exercise due care, O.C.G.A. § 40-6-241;
- (c) Operating a vehicle with visible emissions on a public road, O.C.G.A. § 40-8-181;
- (d) Violating Federal Motor Carrier Safety Regulations, federally and as adopted in Georgia, including, without limitation, 49 CFR § 396; and
- (e) Other failures and violations of the FMCSRs and Georgia laws.

38.

Defendant Santos' negligent conduct proximately caused the subject collision.

39.

By virtue of Defendant Santos' negligent conduct, Plaintiff suffered serious physical and emotional injuries and pain and suffering. Plaintiff also sustained damages for medical expenses and other expenses, lost wages and benefits, and loss of enjoyment of life.

40.

By virtue of Defendant Santos' negligent conduct, Defendant Santos is liable to Plaintiff for all damages allowed under the law and as set forth more fully herein.

COUNT II – NEGLIGENCE OF ATC TRANSPORT
(VICARIOUS LIABILITY AND INDEPENDENT NEGLIGENCE)

41.

Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint for Damages as if each were fully set forth in their entirety.

42.

At all times material hereto, Defendant ATC Transport owned the tractor driven by Santos at the time of the subject collision.

43.

At all times material hereto, Defendant ATC Transport owned the trailer hauled by Defendant Santos at the time of the subject collision.

44.

At the time of the subject collision, Defendant Santos was an employee or agent of Defendant ATC Transport.

45.

At the time of the subject collision, Defendant Santos was acting within the scope and course of his employment or agency with Defendant ATC Transport.

46.

At the time of the subject collision, Defendant Santos was under lease to Defendant ATC Transport as a commercial motor vehicle driver.

47.

At the time of the subject collision, Defendant Santos was driving a tractor-trailer under dispatch for Defendant ATC Transport.

48.

At the time of the subject collision, Defendant Santos was a permissive user of the tractor-trailer involved in the subject collision.

49.

Under the principles of respondeat superior, actual agency, apparent agency, and/or lease liability, Defendant ATC Transport is vicariously liable and legally responsible for the negligent acts and omissions of Defendant Santos.

50.

By virtue of imputed liability, Defendant ATC Transport is liable to Plaintiff for all damages allowed under the law and as set forth more fully in the Damages section below.

51.

At all times relevant, Defendant ATC Transport was engaged in a joint venture with Defendant Dispatchers OTR to operate commercial vehicles on the roadway in interstate commerce and is therefore liable for damages caused in this case.

52.

Defendant ATC Transport was also independently negligent in at least the following ways:

- (a) Negligently allowing Defendant Santos to operate his vehicle in such a condition as to likely cause an accident;
- (b) Negligently failing to systematically inspect, repair and maintain, or cause to be systematically inspected, repaired and maintained, motor vehicles subject to its control, including Defendant Santos' vehicle;
- (c) Negligently failing to perform an inspection of Defendant Santos' vehicle;
- (d) Negligently failing to declare and mark Defendant Santos' vehicle "out-of-service";
- (e) Negligently hiring or contracting with Defendant Santos to operate the tractor-trailer involved in the subject collision;
- (f) Negligently failing to properly qualify Defendant Santos as a commercial driver;
- (g) Negligently training Defendant Santos to inspect and maintain a tractor-trailer;
- (h) Negligently failing to properly supervise Defendant Santos;
- (i) Negligently entrusting Defendant Santos to operate a tractor-trailer professionally;

- (j) Negligently retaining Defendant Santos to drive the tractor-trailer involved in the subject collision;
- (k) Negligently failing to conduct proper and required checks on the background of Defendant Santos;
- (l) Negligently failing to exercise ordinary care to determine Defendant Santos' fitness for the task of driving a commercial motor vehicle;
- (m) Negligently contracting with an unfit and unsafe motor carrier without performing adequate due diligence;
- (n) Negligently selecting a motor carrier to ship goods or property via interstate commerce;
- (o) Otherwise violating state laws and federal regulations governing trucking companies; and
- (p) Otherwise failing to act as a reasonably prudent company under the circumstances.

53.

Defendant ATC Transport had a duty to promulgate and enforce rules and regulations to ensure its drivers and vehicles were reasonably safe and negligently failed to do so.

54.

Defendant ATC Transport's negligence is a proximate cause of the collision that resulted in unnecessary injury to Plaintiff.

55.

By virtue of Defendant ATC Transport's negligent conduct, Defendant ATC

Transport is liable to Plaintiff for all damages allowed under the law and as set forth more fully herein.

COUNT III – NEGLIGENCE OF DISPATCHERS OTR
(VICARIOUS LIABILITY AND INDEPENDENT NEGLIGENCE)

56.

Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint for Damages as if each were fully set forth in their entirety.

57.

Defendant Dispatchers OTR owned the tractor driven by Defendant Santos at the time of the subject collision.

58.

Defendant Dispatchers OTR owned the trailer hauled by Defendant Santos at the time of the subject collision.

59.

At the time of the subject collision, Defendant Santos was an employee or agent of Defendant Dispatchers OTR.

60.

At the time of the Subject Collision, Defendant Santos was acting within the scope and course of his employment or agency with Defendant Dispatchers OTR.

61.

At the time of the subject collision, Defendant Santos was under lease to Defendant Dispatchers OTR as a commercial motor vehicle driver.

62.

At the time of the subject collision, Defendant Santos was driving a tractor-trailer under dispatch for Defendant Dispatchers OTR.

63.

At the time of the Subject Collision, Defendant Santos was a permissive user of the tractor-trailer involved in the Subject Collision.

64.

Under the principles of respondeat superior, actual agency, apparent agency, and/or lease liability, Defendant Dispatchers OTR is vicariously liable and legally responsible for the negligent acts and omissions of Defendant Santos.

65.

By virtue of imputed liability, Defendant Dispatchers OTR is liable to Plaintiff for all damages allowed under the law and as set forth more fully in the Damages section below.

66.

At all times relevant, Defendant Dispatchers OTR was engaged in a joint venture with Defendant ATC Transport to operate commercial vehicles on the roadway in interstate commerce and is therefore liable for damages caused in this case.

67.

Defendant Dispatchers OTR was also independently negligent in at least the following ways:

- (a) Negligently allowing Defendant Santos to operate his vehicle in such a condition as to likely cause an accident;
- (b) Negligently failing to systematically inspect, repair and maintain, or cause to be systematically inspected, repaired and maintained, motor vehicles subject to its control, including Defendant Santos' vehicle;

- (c) Negligently failing to perform an inspection of Defendant Santos' vehicle;
- (d) Negligently failing to declare and mark Defendant Santos' vehicle "out-of-service";
- (e) Negligently hiring or contracting with Defendant Santos to operate the tractor-trailer involved in the subject collision;
- (f) Negligently failing to properly qualify Defendant Santos as a commercial driver;
- (g) Negligently training Defendant Santos to inspect and maintain a tractor-trailer;
- (h) Negligently failing to properly supervise Defendant Santos;
- (i) Negligently entrusting Defendant Santos to operate a tractor-trailer professionally;
- (j) Negligently retaining Defendant Santos to drive the tractor-trailer involved in the subject collision;
- (k) Negligently failing to conduct proper and required checks on the background of Defendant Santos;
- (l) Negligently failing to exercise ordinary care to determine Defendant Santos' fitness for the task of driving a commercial motor vehicle;
- (m) Negligently contracting with an unfit and unsafe motor carrier without performing adequate due diligence;
- (n) Negligently selecting a motor carrier to ship goods or property via interstate commerce;
- (o) Otherwise violating state laws and federal regulations governing trucking companies; and

- (p) Otherwise failing to act as a reasonably prudent company under the circumstances.

68.

Defendant Dispatchers OTR had a duty to promulgate and enforce rules and regulations to ensure its drivers and vehicles were reasonably safe and negligently failed to do so.

69.

Defendant Dispatchers OTR's negligence is a proximate cause of the collision that resulted in unnecessary injury to Plaintiff.

70.

By virtue of Defendant Dispatchers OTR's negligent conduct, Defendant Dispatchers OTR is liable to Plaintiff for all damages allowed under the law and as set forth more fully herein.

COUNT IV – DIRECT ACTION AGAINST TRISURA SPECIALTY INSURANCE COMPANY

71.

Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint for Damages as if each were fully set forth in their entirety.

72.

Defendant Trisura Specialty provided liability insurance on the tractor and trailer unit involved in the subject collision.

73.

Defendant Trisura Specialty agreed to provide insurance coverage to Defendants Santos, ATC Transport and Dispatchers OTR in consideration for the payment of insurance premiums.

74.

Defendant Trisura Specialty was transacting business in the State of Georgia on the date of the subject collision, and at all material times hereto, and is subject to the venue of this Court pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 33-4-1 and all other applicable Georgia law.

75.

Plaintiff, as a member of the public injured due to a common carrier's negligence, is a third-party beneficiary to that agreement. Pursuant to O.C.G.A. §§ 40-1-112 and/or 40-2-140, Defendant Trisura Specialty is subject to this Direct Action.

COUNT V – DAMAGES

76.

Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint for Damages as if each were fully set forth in their entirety.

77.

As a direct result of the subject collision, Plaintiff suffered serious permanent injuries.

78.

The injuries sustained by Plaintiff required, and continue to require, medical care and attention. Such expenses were incurred for the necessary care and treatment of the injuries to Plaintiff resulting from the subject collision. The charges for such medical care were and are reasonable, usual, and customary charges made for such services.

79.

At the time of the Subject Collision, Plaintiff was a general contractor. The injuries he suffered caused him to miss time from work and have greatly diminished his capacity to work and to earn a living. As a direct result of the injuries that are the subject of this litigation, Plaintiff has lost, and continues to lose, income.

80.

By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount to be adjudicated by law. This includes, but is not limited to, the following special damages:

Wayne Memorial Hospital	$9,251.00
Wayne Emergency Group, LLC	$2,089.00
Atrium Health Primary Care	$2,703.75
Carolinas Physician Network, Inc.	$420.00
Atrium Health Carolinas Medical Center	$237.35
Piedmont Healthcare	$242,070.81
Peachtree Orthopedics	$72,587.12
Apex Orthopedic Spine and Neurology	$TBD
Post-Surgery physical therapy	$TBD
Lost wages	$TBD

81.

Plaintiff's injuries continue to cause him significant pain and suffering and impair his ability to perform normal daily functions. These ill effects will continue to affect him in the future.

82.

Each of the Defendants acted in a manner that either alone or combined and concurring with the actions of the other Defendants' acts of negligence, directly and proximately caused the subject collision and Plaintiff's injuries.

83.

As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' negligence, Plaintiff was seriously injured and continues to endure physical and mental pain and suffering.

84.

Plaintiff is entitled to recovery for all damages he has suffered and will suffer to the full extent allowed under Georgia law, including both economic and non-economic damages.

COUNT VI – PUNITIVE DAMAGES

85.

Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint for Damages as if each were fully set forth in their entirety.

86.

Defendants Santos, ATC Transport and Dispatchers OTR's acts were willful and wanton acts as set forth herein, as well as other acts described herein, demonstrated that entire want of care which raises the presumption of a conscious indifference to consequences.

87.

Accordingly, Defendants are liable to Plaintiff for punitive damages to punish, penalize, and deter these Defendants from similar conduct in the future.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

88.

Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference all preceding paragraphs of this Complaint for Damages as if each were fully set forth in their entirety.

89.

Plaintiff hereby demands a trial by jury.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that the following relief be granted:

(a) For Summons and Complaint for Damages to issue against the

Defendants;

- (b) For general damages to compensate Plaintiff;
- (c) For all special damages in an amount to be proved at trial;
- (d) For all costs of litigation;
- (e) For punitive damages in an amount to be determined by the enlightened conscience of a jury;
- (f) For judgment against the Defendants in an amount to fully compensate Plaintiff for his pain and suffering, past, present and future;
- (g) For judgment against the Defendants in an amount to fully compensate Plaintiff for his mental anguish, past, present and future;
- (h) For all such other economic and non-economic losses as may be shown at the hearing of this matter to the full extent allowed under law;
- (i) That Plaintiff obtains judgment against the Defendants in an amount determined in the minds of a fair and impartial jury;
- (j) That Plaintiff recover his attorneys' fees and expenses;
- (k) That court costs, discretionary costs, and prejudgment interest be awarded to Plaintiff; and
- (l) For all such further and general relief which this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted, this 28th day of May, 2023.

STATE OF GEORGIA

Defendants.

THE

CIVIL ACTION NO.:
23-C-03676-S7

ANSWER OF NATIONAL GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY

COME NOW National General Insurance Company (hereinafter "National General"), served as a purported uninsured/underinsured motorist carrier in the above-referenced matter and timely files its answer to Plaintiff's Complaint as follows:

FIRST DEFENSE

Plaintiff's Complaint fails to state a claim against National General upon which relief can be granted, therefore, Plaintiff's Complaint against National General should be dismissed.

SECOND DEFENSE

Defendant is not an uninsured or underinsured motorist as those terms are defined by applicable statutory language, case law, or policy language. Therefore, Plaintiff's claim against National General should be dismissed.

THIRD DEFENSE

To the extent National General has made medical payments or other payments under coverages to the Plaintiffs, in the above captioned action, National General hereby claims the right of set off, payment, and/or reduction from any judgment to prevent duplication of benefits and unwarranted double recovery.

FOURTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's alleged injuries and damages are the result of the actions or inactions of a person or persons for whose actions or inactions National General are neither liable nor responsible. Therefore, Plaintiff's Complaint against National General should be denied.

FIFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's alleged injuries and damages, or at least a portion of them, are the result of conditions which existed prior to the event of which Plaintiff complains and are in no way aggravated, compounded, nor otherwise increased by the event by which Plaintiff complains. Therefore, Plaintiff's Complaint against National General should be denied.

SIXTH DEFENSE

National General hereby raise all affirmative defenses available under Georgia law, including but not limited to all defenses listed in O.C.G.A. § 9-11-12(b) and (h) and O.C.G.A. § 9-11-8(c).

SEVENTH DEFENSE

National General respond to the separately numbered paragraphs of Plaintiff's Complaint as follows:

1.

National General is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truthfulness of the allegations contained in the above-referenced paragraph of Plaintiff's Complaint and, therefore, can neither admit nor deny the same.

2.

National General is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truthfulness of the allegations contained in the above-referenced paragraph of Plaintiff's Complaint and, therefore, can neither admit nor deny the same.

DEFENDANT TRISURA SPECIALTY INSURANCE COMPANY'S ANSWER TO PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES

COMES NOW, Trisura Specialty Insurance Company ("Defendant" or "Defendant Trisura"), one of the named Defendants in the above-styled civil action and hereby files its Answer and Affirmative Defenses to Plaintiff's Complaint for Damages ("Complaint"), showing the Court as follows:

FIRST DEFENSE

Plaintiff's Amended Complaint fails to state a claim against this Defendant upon which relief can be granted.

SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiff's alleged damages were directly and proximately caused by the acts or omissions of persons or entities other than Defendant.

THIRD DEFENSE

While denying Defendants were negligent, even if Defendants were negligent, such alleged negligence did not proximately cause Plaintiff's alleged injuries and damages.

FOURTH DEFENSE

While specifically denying any negligence, if Defendants were negligent, the negligence of Plaintiff equaled or exceeded any negligence of Defendants.

FIFTH DEFENSE

While specifically denying any negligence on their part, if Defendants were negligent, any damages awarded to Plaintiff should be reduced proportionally based upon the negligence of Plaintiff and the negligence of other unnamed responsible parties, if any, pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 51-12-33.

SIXTH DEFENSE

Any acts or omissions by Defendants were unintentional and in the exercise of ordinary care.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

Defendant denies that it is subject to any award of punitive damages in this case, but shows that any award of punitive damages is limited by the cap imposed by O.C.G.A. § 51-12-5.1.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's Complaint fails to state a cause of action for punitive damages against this Defendant and there is not evidence sufficient to create a jury issue on punitive damages against this Defendant. As a defense to Plaintiff's claims for punitive damages, however, this Defendant also states that any such claim and/or award pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 51-12-5.1 should be denied on the grounds that this would violate the guarantees of the Eighth Amendment to the United States Constitution against excessive fines and penalties and the Constitution of the State of Georgia (Article 1, Section 1, Paragraph 17), the substantive and procedural due process guarantees of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the Constitution of the State of Georgia (Article 1, Section 1, Paragraph 1), and the equal protection guarantees of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution and the Constitution of the State of Georgia (Article 1, Section 1, Paragraph 2) for the following reasons, among others:

1. The statute and the court decisions interpreting the statute, fail to notify individuals of the nature of the offense for which they may be liable for punitive damages, and fail to limit the award of punitive damages to the degree of reprehensibility of the Defendant's misconduct; the disparity between the harm (or potential harm) suffered by the Plaintiff and the punitive damage award; and the difference between the punitive damages awarded by the jury and the civil penalties authorized or imposed in comparable cases;

2. The statute, and the court decisions interpreting the statute, fail to adequately inform or instruct judges and juries of the nature of the offenses for which punitive damages can be awarded;

3. The statute, and the court decisions interpreting the statute, fail to provide any constitutional standard or means of calculating the amount of punitive damages to be awarded;

4. The statute, and the court decisions interpreting the statute, allow persons to repeatedly be put in jeopardy of paying for the same offense;

5. To the extent the award of punitive damages are criminal or quasi-criminal in nature, they are not awarded upon proof beyond a reasonable doubt, contrary to due process of law;

6. The statute, and the court decisions interpreting the statute, permit the award of excessive punitive damages without relationship to the public safety, health or welfare said to be served by punitive damages;

7. The statute, and the court decisions interpreting the statute, permit the trier of fact to consider the Defendant's net worth, wealth or financial condition in awarding punitive damages or in calculating such an award;

8. The statute, and the court decisions interpreting the statute, fail to provide adequate post-verdict processes and standards for review by the trial court and also fail to provide adequate appellate review procedures so as to adequately protect due process rights;

9. The statute, and the court decisions interpreting the statute, permit the award of punitive damages without reasonable relationship to the civil or criminal penalties that could be imposed for comparable misconduct in other cases;

10. The statute, and the court decisions interpreting these statute, fail to limit the award of punitive damages to criminal or intentional behavior.

11. The statute, and the court decisions interpreting the statute, fail to limit the award of punitive damages to what is reasonably required to vindicate this State's legitimate interests in punishment and deterrence for conduct having an impact on the citizens of Georgia;

12. The statute, and the court decisions interpreting the statute, fail to ensure the award of punitive damages is both reasonable and proportional to the amount of harm to the Plaintiff and to the general damages recovered;

13. The statute, and the court decisions interpreting the statute, do not give cognizance to the comparability of the award to awards in other, similar cases;

14. The statute, and the court decisions interpreting the statute, do not provide notice of or means of ascertaining whether, or in what amount, this Defendant might be subject to a penalty of punitive damages for the conduct alleged by Plaintiffs in this case, which lack of notice is compounded by the absence of any adequate or meaningful standards as to the kind of conduct that might subject this Defendant to punitive damages or as to the potential amount of such an award;

15. The statute, and the court decisions interpreting the statute, do not provide adequate substantive and procedural safeguards consistent with the criteria set forth in Philip Morris USA v. Williams, 549 U.S. 346 (2007); State Farm Mutual Auto. Ins. Co. v. Campbell, 538 U.S. 408 (2003); Cooper Industries, Inc. v. Leatherman Tool Group, Inc., 532 U.S. 424 (2001); BMW of North America, Inc. v. Gore, 517 U.S. 559 (1996); Pacific Mutual Life Ins. Co. v. Haslip, 499 U.S. 1 (1990); Matthews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319 (1976), as to the imposition of a punitive award;

16. The statute, and the court decisions interpreting the statute, provide a risk that punitive damages will be imposed retrospectively based on conduct that was not deemed punishable at the time the conduct occurred;

17. The statute, and the court decisions interpreting the statute, do not expressly prohibit an award of punitive damages, or determining the amount of an award of punitive damages, in whole or in part, on the basis of invidiously discriminatory characteristics, including the residence, wealth, and corporate status of this Defendant;

18. The statute, and the court decisions interpreting the statute, do not adequately instructed on the limits on punitive damages imposed by the applicable principles of deterrence and punishment.

NINTH DEFENSE

Pending further investigation and discovery, this Defendant reserves the right to assert all affirmative defenses available under the Civil Practice Act.

TENTH DEFENSE

This Defendant responds to the specific allegations contained in Plaintiff's Amended Complaint as follows:

1.

Defendant admits that this lawsuit is based on Plaintiff's allegations that he suffered injuries after a motor vehicle collision on or about the stated date at or about the stated location. This Defendant denies all further allegations contained in Paragraph 1 of Plaintiff's Complaint and further specifically denies any negligence or liability to Plaintiff.

PARTIES, JURISDICTION, AND VENUE

Upon information and belief, this Defendant admits the allegations contained in Paragraph 2 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

3.

This Defendant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 3 of Plaintiff's Complaint, and as such, can neither admit nor deny the same.

This Defendant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 4 of Plaintiff's Complaint, and as such, can neither admit nor deny the same.

5.

This Defendant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 5 of Plaintiff's Complaint, and as such, can neither admit nor deny the same.

6.

Defendant admits that it issued a policy to Defendant Dispatchers OTR with an endorsement addressing the vehicle in the subject collision. This Defendant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 6 of Plaintiff's Complaint, and as such, can neither admit nor deny same.

7.

Defendant admits that it is authorized to conduct business in the State of Georgia and may be served upon the named registered agent at the named location. Defendant further states that it is subject to state laws but denies that Paragraph 7 accurately or completely states the same. Defendant further denies all remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 7 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

8.

Defendant admits that it is subject to the jurisdiction of this Court. Defendant further states that it is subject to several state laws but denies that Paragraph 8 accurately or completely states the same. Defendant further denies all remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 8 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

9.

Defendant admits that it is subject to the venue of this Court. Defendant further states that it is subject to several state laws but denies that Paragraph 9 accurately or completely states the same. Defendant further denies all remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 9 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

10.

Defendant admits the allegations contained in Paragraph 10 of Plaintiff's Complaint.

11.

This Defendant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 11 of Plaintiff's Complaint, and as such, can neither admit nor deny the same.

12.

This Defendant is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 12 of Plaintiff's Complaint, and as such, can neither admit nor deny the same.

13.
